Not only is The Colony Palm Beach the perfect staycation, but its also home to tasty cocktails local libations. Sip on crowd favorites like the Pink Paradise mixed with Ketel One vodka, Cocchi Americano, hibiscus, grapefruit and pink peppercorn or the Monkey Business full of Monkey in Paradise vodka, mango, citrus, mint, ginger and sparkling water. The best part yet? A live Flamenco guitarist fills the room with effortless tunes every Thursday through Sunday from 6 to 9 pm. 155 Hammon Ave, Palm Beach

From an upscale eatery to extensive menu overflowing with carefully crafted cocktails, Le Bar à Vin truly has it all. While you may come for the famous truffle flatbread and Wagyu filet, we promise you'll stay for around round of their sweet and strong cocktails. Go classic with the

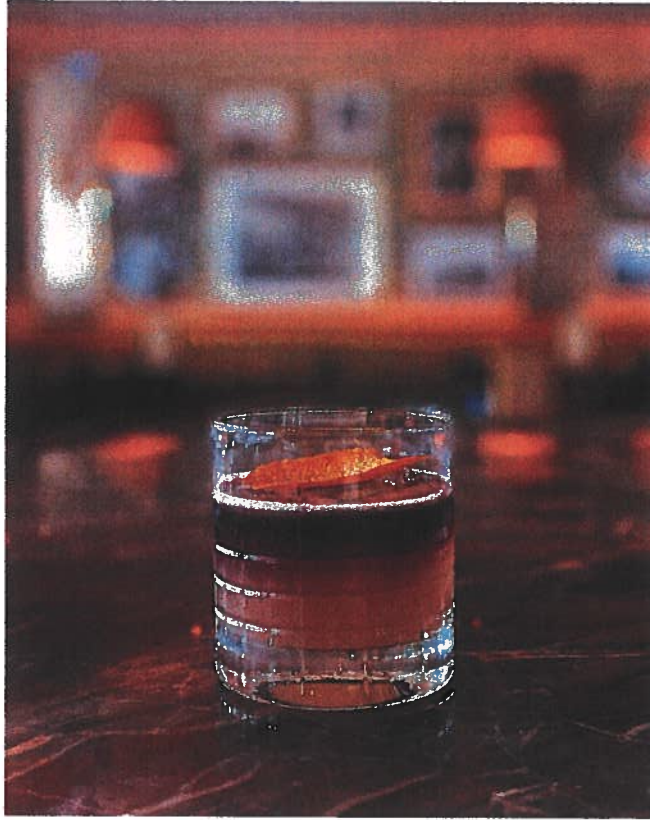

Invisible margarita with Cazadores Blanco tequila, Cointreau, lime, agave and coconut, or mix it up with the Green Goddess featuring Nolet's Silver Dry gin, Pamplemousse rosé, organic matcha, lemon, egg white and Thai bitters. 380 S
County Rd, Palm Beach

Aptly named after the resorts iconic founder, Henry Morrison Flagler, The Breakers' Florentine Room has transformed into HMF, an up-and-coming cocktail lounge with an eclectic mix of bespoke cocktails to choose from. Try its fragrant take on the classic G&T; sit back; and enjoy the best people-watching on the island. The Breakers, 1 S. County Road

Tucked inside The Brazilian Court Palm Beach lies the newly expanded bar at Café Boulud Palm Beach. Infused with 1920's glamour and Spanish Colonial architecture, it's the perfect spot to grab a drink (or two!) before or after dinner. Choose your own flavor from its inventive cocktail list or keep it simple with its craft beers on tap. 301 Australian Ave, Palm Beach

Picture this: You're nibbling on fresh sushi and saki in the outdoor garden lined with lanterns on the most perfect Palm Beach summer night. With the garden, Dragonfly Lounge and terrace all fair game, Echo has a little something for everyone. Did we mention there are over 6 martinis and 4 specialty cocktails to choose from? With a lineup this good, it's impossible to go wrong. The Breakers, 1 S. County Road
